On Monday in LN1 we had an incursion. A man named Xavier came with a snake and I got to hold it. It felt very weird. I felt nervous because I thought there was only going to be one snake but there were two - one was yellow and one was black. I like how the snake stayed still when we held it.

I wasn't holding a frog. It was leaving water on my hand. It felt watery. – Victoria

Xavier put the snake around my neck. It felt weird because it was moving. It was really cool to hold a snake - this was my first time holding a snake! - Riley C

I held a baby crocodile. It was yellow and green and it's name was Blondie. I felt scared but I was safe because its mouth was shut with a rubber band. – Paige

I didn't want to hold the head because I thought it might bite me! – Kalala

We have been channelling the values of Natia this week! It has been really fun putting our own unique spin on learning. We are flying through term four and still managing to reach our learning goals. We have been practicing our dance for the festival and can't wait to show you all!

Last week, our very own Manisha was presented with the Hume City Council Educational Scholarship Award for 2016. Manisha was chosen for continually demonstrating all the qualities of the Broadmeadows Valley Learning Values! We want to congratulate her not only for efforts this year but for representing our school so well at the award ceremony. A reminder that all Grade 6 students need to return their note and payment for graduation by Friday the 9th of December.

In Reading this week, we have continued to build our understanding of inference. This week we have been inferring character motivation using the actions, words and plot of the book as clues. It has been fantastic to hear students thinking about the different motivations people in our school and community may have and thinking about it from different points of view.

In Writing, we are finishing up our speeches about the impact renewable energy has and on us and our environment. Students have been focusing on their sentence structure adding punctuation, varying sentence lengths and adding quotes to their writing. Students are looking forward to reading their speeches next week. Some students will be recording their speeches in the Green Studio to share at the Broadmeadows Valley End of Year Celebration!

In Numeracy, we have been investigating how decimals, fractions and percentages relate with each other. Students have been learning through hands on materials, the use of ICT and working with their peers. The amount of learning and progress that the students have developed over the last 6 weeks has been fantastic and it is due to the student’s determination, focus and wanting to learn more.

The students are still practicing their performances for Next Week’s Broadmeadows Valley Celebration, so make sure you come out and support all the students in LN3.

Have a great weekend!
